LITERATURE AND ART.

MEW PUBLICATIONS—THE MUSEUM AND ACADEMY. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13 .- It is a mistake to suppose that Boston gets all the good things that come from the brains of men. When that great, over-grown boy, John Forster-who was Dickens's life-long friend, and to whom the great novelist committed all his literary and private papers, thus laying open to him every avenue of information—announced the publication of Charles Dickens's biography, it was but natural to suppose his American publisher would be the genial Ougood of Tremont-st., in the City of the Hub. But it is not to be so. This rare prize has been secured by J. B. Lippincott & Co., who have, for a considerable sum, bought of Mr. Porster the advance sheets from which they will issue presently the life of Boz, for which all the people in the world who wish to get into the inside of the great Master's life are so eagerly looking. That it will be lovingly and well done no one who has read Forster's charming "Life and Tunes of Goldsmith" can doubt.

It would be impossible in a single letter to give any adequate hint even of the character of the large number of columes Lippincott & Co. have in press, Among them are several novels; one, at least, of which is likely to prove both a, literary and commercial success. It is ed "Left to Herself," and though it is a story of Southern life it has nothing to do with Slavery or the war. Another is entitled "Myself," a romance of New England life. "Ouida" also is represented in the list of this bouse by a "Leaf in the Storm," and other nove lettes, and George Tellott in a story, with a good title, "The Funny Philosopher; Or, Boys and Sweethearts." The most important work lately issued by Lippincott & is "The New Scriptural Commentary" on the Old and New Testaments, in six vois., 8vo. The New Testament tion is prepared with continual reference to the critical Greek Testaments of Lachmann, Tischendorf, and Tregelies; to the critical Commentaries on the entire New Testament of Bengel, De Wette, Meyer, Olshausen, Alford, Webster, and Wilkinson, and to the best Commentaries on the separate books. A like thoroughness is manifest regarding the Old Testament.

Lippincoll's Magazine, which, under the editorial charge of the ripe scholar and historian J. Foster Kirk, ts taking high position among its competitors, will in the Becomber number have several papers of unusual integest. Chief of these will be an article on "The Sharpless Crayons," which are a collection of portraits of the men and women celebrities of Revolutionary times. Sharpless was a young artist who came out to this country soon after the close of the war, and was so fortunate as to se cure apatron in Dr. John Winder of Yeardley, Virginia In those days of silken stir and courtly din, the reigning not one of them escaped without a sitting to the young Englishman, whose canvas was a thick gray paper, no larger than a letter sheet, softly ed, and of woolly texture. He used pantograph, and his colored crayons were applied with a camel's hair brush. Wanting money, he left in pawn with Dr. Winder this now famous and valuable collection of historic portraits, numbering 150. Twenty of the original number have disappeared, but among the 130 that remain are the counterfeit presentments of Washlugton, John Adams, Jefferson, Hamilton, Burr, Bushrod Washington, James Mouroe, Flaher Ames, Judge Kent, Chanceller Livingston, De Witt Clinton, Albert Gullatin, Timothy Pickering, Gen. Gates, Gen. Clinton Lafayette, John Jay, William Pinkney, Oliver Wolcott, Gen. Sumpter, Gen. Wayne, Bishop White, Judge Cush ing, Dr. Dwight, Robert Treat Paine, Sir Humphry Davy Sir William Herschel, Robert Southey, Priestiey, Dr. Dar win, William Godwin, the Duc de Liancourt, the Duc de Orleans, Talleyrand, and Napper Tandy. These latte were painted before the artist came over, of course Dr. 8. Weir Mitchell will have a curious physiologica study in the same number on "Phantom Limbs." This gives, from his large experience as Chief Surgeon of the Army Hospital for Nervous Diseases and Gunshot Wounds, accounts of the sensations of those brave fel-lows who left their limbs on the battle-field or surgeons es. In a story the learned Doctor wrote just after the war, he gave us, through one of the magazines, a bint of what this paper will contain. T. Buchanan Read also contributes a poem.

Claxton, Remsen, & Haffelfinger are busy as bees pre paring for the genial holidays, when the fancy of so many runs bookwards. They will publish directly. "Dream Life and Other Poems," by Stockton Bates, a young tournalist of Philadelphia; and as if one volume of poems were not enough for one month, they will also try to find readers for other "Poems," by J. Gordon Brinckle, esq., a member of the Bar.

Alfred Martien, who, beside publishing two excellent weekly newspapers, is chief among the publishers of re-ligious juveniles, has just issued "The Langham Revels," "Judge Branard's Infantry," "The Hidden Home," "A Rough Boy's Story," "Sunshine Bill," and "The Little Yellow-Jacket Series," in five volumes, all which are calculated to prove attractive to Sunday-schools.

We are not certain that E. H. Baker & Co.'s series of school-readers, by Epes Sargent and Amasa May, will prove equally attractive to the secular scholars, but they should do so. The authors have in this new series encombine all the advantages of the Word method, the A B C method, the Phonic system, and Ob ject Teaching. The series is in five books, graduated from the beginner upward.

Willis P. Hazard has dissolved his connection with orter & Costes, and has bought the plates and copyrights of the Hartford Publishing Company, with the intention of pursuing the subscription book business.

Porter & Coafes are publishing little beside their juve niles, which they bring out in a very attractive style They have now the only retail house of any note on dress to the people of Philadelphia, stating its claims to the support of the public. It has been the decire of the di-rectors of this institution for several years past to secure a sum sufficient to enable them to transfer their valuable collection to a building better adapted to its require ments. At present it is housed in quarters so contracted that one-tenth of it cannot be properly exhibited, and so mean as to be a disgrace to the community that refuses to supply better ones. The Board of Directors have purchased an eligible lot on which to erect a new and fitting ediffer, but they have no means to build. The style determined upon for the new scademy is the cottage gothic, and it is proposed, if enough money is subscribed, to erect a single warg, which will cover an area of 65x184 feet, leaving about 36,000 square feet for future extensions. The muthem unique, for instance the restored skeleton of the Hadrosaurus foulkii. The department of emithology is especially rich, containing more than 31,000 specimens, and said to be finer than any other collection in the world. Considering that this museum has always been entirely free for the public until the last year, and that 28 would always be free if a proper building were pro-vided for it, the directors have claims upon our citizens which should not remain unrecognized.

The old and new schools of the Presbyterian Church

having united, the two separate publication houses in this city have been merged into one. This is situated in this city have been merged into one. This is situated in Chastaut-st., opposite the Mint, the old house below North-st. on Chestaut, having been abandoned. The house-now crecting for the accommodation of the two will be very complete in all its details, containing not only the appliances for making and selling hooks, but handsome reading and reception recent for the clergy and distinguished members of the Church from abroad. A good deal of dissatisfaction is expressed here against Basharmel for again publicly exhibiting, for a price, his painting of Gettysburg, and thus risking its destruction. The diste, which gave bim the commission to paint it, has already paid him $6,000 for the pleture, and it is thought is should fulfill his part of the burgain by handing it ever at once to the proper authorities. But he while is the should fulfill his part of the burgain by handing it around the country. At Chicago it was been abled to the proper authorities. But he was a strain in a strength of the country of the burgain for the instruction of women in art is an applicant for a contribution from the frame. It is now on exhibition at Pittaburgh. A Collection of Poetry for the Young, selected and edited by John Greenleaf Whittier, with an introductory Essay. Profusely illustrated with handsome engravings. 1 vol. Small cuarto. Beveled and gilt. $3 This volume includes a large number of the choicest poems in the literature of child life. Hundreds of the most popular writers are repre-sented—American, English, German, Italian, Norwegian, and Dutch. Mr bittler remards in the Preface:

While the compiler has endeavored to accommodate his book to the special tastes of the young, he has not been without the hope that readers may find something of interest in it-something to bring ack the freshness of the pass-blots and echoes from the lost world or allishood. He is happy in believing that, in this way, some ing of life is not whothy dried up, and where may still t card the music of the birds of sunrise."

The large and choice variety of centeurs, the beautiful printing, tastefall bloding, and shoudant illustrations of this volume make it a gift-boo his William Edery Chausing. I vol. 16mo. $1.25. Paper, 75 cents. This volume is of a coaracter to justify what Mr. Emerson said of an action work by the same author. Here is poetry which saks no and of magnitude or number, of blood or crime, but finds theater enough in the rei Seld or brook-side, breadth and depth enough in the flow of its own hought. Here is self-respect which leads a man to date from his heart more promily than from Rome. Here is love which sees through surface and adores the gentle nature and not the costume."

and accres the geutle nature and not the costume."

Mr. Geo. W. Curtis says: "Channing seems to be so intent upon his thought that, the a monatio climber reselved to plack the celebraisa, he will mind no shocks or hruises. " It is refreshing, in these echoing days, to bear a strain which is entirely without echo. " Amidst the erse which is popular at the moment, this is a strain like that of Words worth to the devotees of Byron."

III. JACK HAZARD AND HIS FORTUNES By J. T. Trowhridge. 1 vol. 16me. Hinstrated. $1 50. This story has eacited great interest as it has appeared serially in Ou Young Folks. It is a book of the best kind for youthful readers,-full of incidents that enlist the attention, and interspersed with useful informa-tion put in the attractive style for which Mr. Trowbridge is famous. It is a thoroughly good book, bundsomely illustrated, and must be in great demand the coming boliday season.

SECOND BOARD.

The stock market to-day has been fairly active in the leading shares, the most marked attraction being Pacific Mail, Western Union, Wabash, Rock Island Lake Shore, and New-York Central. During a portion of the foreneon quite a spirited upward movement was encouraged by the cheering condition of monetary affairs here and on the Continent, the advance being led by the Telegraph stock, which rose from 65% to 67%; but its companion shares did not respond so materially. Despite this rose-colored condition of affairs and the serene monetary outlook, the bulls found nobody couragrous enough to help them carry their stocks, or willing to have them shifted from their present abiding-place. So t was that in the afternoon, when the market was without the support of its backers, prices commenced a retrograde movement, the afternoon dealings being at lower prices. The Hannibal and St. Joseph stocks ruled weak and lower. Among investment shares we note sales of Chicago and Alton at 116; Michigan Central, 22:012: Hartford and New-Haven, 100, and Pennsylva nia Coal, 220. Among the miscellaneous shares we note sales of Canton at 71, Quicksilver advancing to 21, and Preferred to 253. Conl stocks were quiet, Expresses beng strong on sales of Adams at 80; and United States at 57, 258. The following table shows the highest and lowest prices of active shares made to-day:

The very favorable foreign advices with reference to the condition of monetary affairs, the low open market rate (3) per cent) in London, and the consequent ex pected reduction of the Bank of Eugland rate of discount next Thursday, and the advancing quotations of bonds at the different Bourses, have favored a lower premium in gold, and the price during the morning was weak at 111 to 111; but, as the day wore on, there was more firmness noted, and the price sevanced to 1115 momentarily but later settled back to 1113. Business was not active at these figures. On gold loans the rates have been flat, 3, 1, 2, and 5 per cent for carrying. The Cimbria sailed with $75,000 in specie. The day's business at the Gold Exchange Bank was as follows: Gold cleared, $38,385,008; gold balances, $1,495,660; currency balances, $1,786,800. The following are the quotations:

FIRST MORTGAGE SINKING FUND LAND GRANT BONDS OF THE

ST. JOSEPH AND DENVER CITY KAILROAD COMPANY, IN DENOMINATIONS OF $1,000, $500 AND $100, can be obtained from the undersigned or through the principal banks and bankers throughout the United States.

These Bonds are being rapidly absorbed by investors and capitalists, and but a small amount remain untaken. The security behind them is ample in every particular, as they constitute a first and only mortgage on a trunk line of railroad which will soon connect the City of St. Joseph, Mo. (an important railway center), with the Union Pacific Railroad at Fort Kearney, materially abortening the distance between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. In addition to this, the Bonds have a further security in the fact that there is included in the Mortgage the Company's magnificent Lands, amounting to 1,500,-000 scres, known to be among the best ir, the United States. The Mortgage indenture prohibits the sale of these Lands at less than Four (4) Dollars per acr :, and payable to the Trustees under the Mortgage, for the clear and express purpose of retiring these Bonds. The amount thus realized exceeds the entire amount of Bonds which can be issued, and leaves the road property and franchises free.

The Bonds have thirty years to run, with interest at Eight Per Cent, Free of Tax, payable February and August in each year.

Both principal and interest are payable in gold. The principal in New-York. The interest in either New-York, London, or Frankfort-on-the-Main, at the option of the holder, without notice, and in the gold currency of the country in which they are presented. They are coupons or registered.
